

WALDORF ASTORIA MALDIVES ITHAAFUSHI WELCOMES FORMER GRAND SLAM CHAMPION, MARY PIERCE TO ITHAAFUSHI THE PRIVATE ISLAND

Waldorf Astoria Maldives Ithaaafushi is delighted to welcome two-time tennis Grand Slam champion Mary Pierce to the resort's private island from 12th June, in the first of many partnerships where sport is the focus.

At Waldorf Astoria Maldives sport plays an important part, the importance of wellness and fitness has from the beginning taken center stage with world-renowned professional tennis players such as Serena Williams visiting often and enjoying the tennis and padel experiences.

Making sure to deliver the unforgettable and being the only resort in the Maldives with no less than 4 courts, there is plenty of space and opportunity for all to play.

Pierce's award-studded career saw her take home 28 titles, including two additional Grand Slam doubles champion titles. As a member of the national French team, Pierce won the Fed Cup twice in 1997 and again in 2003.

Guests can enjoy meeting 48-Year-old Mary either at a meet and greet where they can exchange stories or where she will spend time on the court, coaching and playing with guests of all abilities, offering complimentary private lessons to those staying on the island.
